TASMANIAN LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE

For all Small Group, Youth & Children's leaders

23rd-26th January, 2009

Blue Lagoon, Dodges Ferry

The TLC Tasmanian Leadership Conference is designed to train small group, youth and children's leaders in how to understand and teach the Bible. It is a 3-4 year hands-on skills-based program.

Year 1: In your first year you will learn skills in how to interpret and apply a Bible Passage and you will put together a simple Bible Study for your group.

Year 2: The Second year you attend you will learn how the Old Testament fits into the story of Jesus and will work on an Old Testament passage.

Year 3-4: You will learn how to use the Bible to teach topics, themes and doctrines accurately.

Program: Each morning we will have talks from Samuel. Then we will break into groups to learn skills in understanding the Bible.

Afternoons: There are seminars, free time and time to design a Bible Study.

Evenings: There will be talks from Titus.

The Speakers:

Andrew Reid is a lecturer in Old Testament and Biblical interpretation at Ridley College and loves to help people understand and get excited about the Old Testament. In his leisure time, Andrew walks their two kelpies, tinkers with computers and enjoys watching British detective TV shows. Andrew will be speaking on 1 Samuel.

Drew Patch, his wife Pip, & their 3 children, live among some of Sydney's biggest schools. Drew's motto for his youth ministry through St James Croydon is simple: "Know Jesus and Make Him Known." He knows that trained youth leaders with good practical skills and great theology have an enormous impact. Drew also enjoys renovating, running, swimming, chatting with students in a café, scuba diving & snow boarding. Yeah, youth ministry is a tough life!
